

Join the Pittsburgh Section ACS as we Celebrate the 20th Anniversary of National Chemistry Week!

Carnegie Science Center
October 26-27, 2007
10 am to 5 pm

The 2007 National Chemistry Week (NCW) celebrations in Pittsburgh will be held on Friday, October 26 and Saturday, October 27, at the Carnegie Science Center. Join in the NCW activities as the Pittsburgh Section of the American Chemical Society (ACS) celebrates this year's NCW theme "The Many Faces of Chemistry."

This year's event will highlight:

- Careers in science, chemistry, and engineering
- College and university majors in science, chemistry, and engineering
- Favorite activities and demonstrations from 20 years of NCW celebrations

Theater Shows – Prizes – Surprises

- Visit over 25 tables with hands-on experiments, activities, and demonstrations
- Register to win a chemistry set or one of several prizes
- Catch special NCW-related theater shows throughout each day
- Access to the NCW celebration in the Carnegie Science Center's first floor lobby is free!

For more information contact the Carnegie Science Center at (412) 237-1640 or the Pittsburgh Section's NCW Coordinator Michael Mautino at (412) 777-4792 or michael.mautino@bayerbms.com
