

Join the Pittsburgh Section ACS as we Celebrate National Chemistry Week -
Having a Ball with Chemistry!

Carnegie Science Center
October 24-25, 2008
10 am to 5 pm

The 2008 National Chemistry Week (NCW) celebrations in Pittsburgh will be held on Friday, October 24 and Saturday, October 25, at the Carnegie Science Center. Join in the NCW activities as the Pittsburgh Section of the American Chemical Society (ACS) celebrates this year's NCW theme "Having a Ball with Chemistry."

This year's event will highlight:

- Connections between chemistry and sports
- Chemistry in materials used for sports
- Chemistry and sports nutrition
- Favorite activities and demonstrations from 21 years of NCW celebrations

Theater Shows – Prizes – Surprises

- Visit over 25 tables with hands-on experiments, activities, and demonstrations
- Register to win a chemistry set or one of several prizes
- Catch special NCW-related theater shows throughout each day
- Access to the NCW celebration in the Carnegie Science Center's first floor lobby is free!

For more information contact the Carnegie Science Center at (412) 237-1640 or the Pittsburgh Section's NCW Coordinator Michael Mautino at (412) 777-4792 or michael.mautino@bayerbms.com

For more information about the Pittsburgh Section's 2008 NCW event visit:
<http://membership.acs.org/P/Pitt/activities.html#week>

The Pittsburgh Section's 2008 NCW activities are sponsored by the Bayer Corporation, the Carnegie Science Center, the PPG Industries Foundation, the PPG Science Education Council, The Society for Analytical Chemists of Pittsburgh, and The Spectroscopy Society of Pittsburgh